Hi there, I'm starting to make edits to the document (only just starting). I'm working off the electronic version that was shared earlier – is this the preference or do you want a share point approach?

P.S. I am pretty systematic (sorry, couldn't resist) in my approach to reviewing documents. I aim for ~10 pages a day and should be done by 6/22. Jason/Vince, not sure if you want to review in parallel or build off my comments, but that's my timeline.
